<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SPECIFICATION FEATURE</th>
<th>CUSTOMER BENEFIT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Decorative two-piece clamshell base cover, cast from unique BASF formulation of Elastomeric Urethane | • Optimum impact resistance and superior durability
• Non-corrosive and will not rust or rot
• Non-conductive without conventional access door to improve safety and security
• Inherently theft resistant with no resale value as scrap
• Affordable and easy to maintain                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Parent material impregnated black throughout. Premium two coat paint system applied to Enduro products including a prime coat applied in black for dark colors and in white for light colors, followed by a Polyurethane Enamel topcoat designed to meet AAMA 2604 for color and gloss performance in our standard colors. | • Maximizes finish preservation over time
• Available in a wide variety of colors and textures to cohesively match steel and aluminum poles.
• As optional, parent material may be custom tinted to compliment alternate color                                                                                                                                                      |
| Durable finish backed with 3-year warranty                                             | • Superior performance provided as the Enduro standard                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Made in the USA                                                                        | • Compliant with Buy America DOT standards and furnished with brass inserts coupled with domestic stainless steel hardware
• Ensures consistent supply chain                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

Brookhaven 3C20EC

Pole Range: 10.00” - 13.00” Tapered
10.00” - 12.00” Non-Tapered

---

Sizing guidelines based on Valmont commercial standards.

Copyright © Valmont Industries, Inc. 2014.